Dear Parents

- Year 1 had their Phonics screening this week. They all were amazing. Well done!
- Years 5 & 6 took part in the Leamington Competitive Festival yesterday. The children all behaved and represented the school brilliantly.
- Don't forget Father's Day this Sunday 16th June 2019.

Solemnity of the Holy Trinity Sunday 16th June.

Another way to explain the Trinity would be that God is the planner, Jesus is the tool used to tell of the plans, and the Holy Spirit is the action (people) that puts the plan into motion.

Movies and Munchies

We are having our much loved Movies and Munchies next week.

KS1(Years Rec-2) Wednesday 19th June 3.30-5.00pm.

KS2(Years 3-6) Thursday 20th June 3.30-5.00pm.

The entrance fee is £2 this will include a drink and a bag of crisps. There will also be other refreshments on sale.

Year 4 trip to Lunt Roman Fort

What a fantastic, fun day for year 4. Learning about battle techniques; I'm not sure they would have survived too long; gruesome and exhausting being a Roman soldier!

Mini Vinnie's trip to Westminster Cathedral

On Tuesday Mini Vinnie's attended a beautiful Mass at Westminster Cathedral.

Dance Day

On Monday 24th June. Ricky will be coming to school to teach each year a dance routine. Parents are invited to come and watch the children perform their dance routine at 2.15pm. Not to be missed!

Foodbank

As the summer holidays are fast approaching and a time when the foodbank runs low on supplies, we are asking for you to donate items for our local Foodbank. Thank you in advance for your generosity.
