

Spellings for week beginning 12.1.18

12.1.18 Group 1

'i before e' except after c

'i before e'	except if 'ei' says ee mischief piece belief	protein either neither compulsory spelling list words
difficult disappear	early earth

Task: Due in on Tuesday

Write 10 sentences that include a spelling word and are written in the perfect form. Here the action has already been 'perfected' or completed. Use the auxillary or helping verb 'to have' before the past participle.
eg. I had forgotten how difficult it is to ride a unicycle.

eg. Sarah has believed in her brother's magic tricks since she was little.

Underline your spelling word.

12.1.18 Group 2

'i before e'	Use ei when:
	'ei' says ee	'ei' says ay
mischief mischievous piece niece belief	protein caffeine seize neither	weigh weight vein neighbour except after c deceive receive ceiling

Task: Due in on Tuesday

Write 12 sentences that include a spelling and are written in the perfect form. Here the action has already been 'perfected' or completed. Use the auxillary or helping verb 'to have' before the past participle.

Eg. Sarah had received the parcel in the post the previous week.

Eg. Tom and Jo have washed their hands thoroughly, as neither of them want to catch the winter vomiting bug.

Underline your spelling word.

12.1.18 Group 3

'i before e'	except after c
mischief mischievous piece hygiene relieved	deceive conceive receive perceive ceiling
Except when 'ei' says ee	Y6 spelling words
protein caffeine seize neither	controversy curiosity disastrous environment

Task: Due in on Tuesday

Write 12 sentences that include a spelling and are written in the perfect form. Here the action has already been 'perfected' or completed. Use the auxillary or helping verb 'to have' before the past participle.

Eg. Sarah had received the parcel in the post the previous week.

Eg. The whole family have washed their hands thoroughly, to maintain their hygiene, thereby avoiding the spread of harmful germs.

Underline your spelling word.